

Good times, good times, good times, good times AAAAA! (4x)
These are the good times IN OUR LIFE! (4x)

Every now and then we have our ups and downs but today I'm talking bout our good times that's now doubt. My favorite time together is alone time, like when we go out to eat or when you put me to bed, when you pray for me and when you rub my head. Movies. Sports. Play the Wii, whatever it is just you and me. Good times.

Saturdays are the place to be when our Oklahoma Sooners play on tv. Hanging downstairs aint rough to us, especially when the Sooners are kickin some butt. Broyles. Stills. Whaley and more. I love to give a high five when the Sooners score. We're sooner born and sooner bred and when we both die we'll be sooner dead. Good times.

Man trips are the latest thing when it's just you and me for the whole weekend. Shootin some guns at the cabin in the trees or cheering for a homer by our man Dave Freese. Mariah. Makalah. Jaydah. Mom. We don't want you there cuz you're not the bomb. Don't be offended, it's not about you, we just need to be alone to escape the zoo. Good times!

We're almost done with this little rap, so after this verse I'm gonna sit back and relax. Writing this mix can be added to the list of the things we do together now pump your fist. We're simple guys and laid back dudes, who knows what's next for time with me and you. Up. Down. All around. It doesn't matter much as long as we hang out. Good times!
